ROCKY MOUNTAIN QUILT MUSEUM RMQM.org through January 18, 2025

The English Paper Piecing

Although EPP is a traditional quilting method with it's American hayday in the 1930's and 40's- quilt makers love to incorporate fabric choices of their current times with traditional quilt patterns and techniques to create contemporary variations of the traditional. This exhibit will not disappoint in showing off variety, creativity and inspiration!

SAQA WILD! At RMQM Is a collection of Art Quilts submitted by Studio Art Quilt Associates members from Colorado, Utah & Wyoming. So, you may be familiar with their works.

They let their imaginations take them on a journey to a WILD place – ANY wild place. The exhibit includes pieces from 30 artists, many from our own state of Colorado!!

Members of SAQA from Colorado, Wyoming and Utah used this challenge to create their own exhibit in which you will recognize some local / regional Wild places.

January 12th Reclamation Alchemy, Potential and Beauty in Used Materials by Eliu Hernandez. Eliu's tool of choice is a seam ripper, and he gets very excited spotting new 'raw materials' of used jeans, with character. Dedicated to making beautiful and functional works using reclaimed materials, he uses clothing, bedding and other fabrics to make quilts, stuffed animals and other functional items.

His insight and inspiration will have you looking twice at materials you would otherwise throw away.

YOUR contribution could push us over the top! Be Part of RMQM's Legacy... check out BUILDING FUND 2024 at the RMQM.org website to learn more.

We welcome Jennifer Sampou, who will visit us through Zoom with her lecture, "Inspired Design."

Jennifer is a nationally-known quilter, fabric designer, pattern designer, author, and speaker. She studied Surface Design at Fashion Institute of Technology in NYC, and Textiles at the University of Vermont.

Jennifer's life's work has been fueled by her love of culture, nature, and discovery of distant exotic lands. With her camera in tow, venturing off the beaten path, she captures repetition in pattern, design, and color combination, which is reflected in her fabric and quilts.

Join us January 16, as we armchair travel the world with Jennifer as she takes us on a color-filled journey with her "Inspired Design" presentation. We will Zoom her in to our screen at BVCC, so we will have our usual in-person meeting with all those perks we enjoy: food, library browsing, free table, and Show & Tell.

3080 Valmont, Boulder (the old Verlo Mattress showroom).
